Brother Lawrence (1614 to 1691) was a monk of the Carmilite order. He is most commonly remembered for the closeness of his relationship with God. In this little book he demonstrates his presence process through conversations and letters to practice staying in the presence of God. He spent most of his adult life in solitude, poverty, and obscurity within the walls of a monistary. He was known for profound peace and high commitment to Jesus Christ. He cared not for the worldly status of his tasks, but the motivation behind it--the process to remain in the presence of God.
